

Ref: PMU/AHE/J&H trip

2nd February 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

As part of your child’s GCSE English literature course, the full and immersive study of the novel, ‘The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde’, is currently in progress.

To further enhance the understanding and application of this learning, the English department deem it highly beneficial for the students to have a visual interpretation of the plot, context and characters.

We therefore invite your child to view a live theatre production of the novel at, Malvern Theatres in Worcestershire, on Wednesday 28th February 2018.

The students will be travelling to Worcestershire during school hours and estimated arrival time back to school will be 6:30 p.m.

The trip in total will cost £20.00, including ticket and travel costs. As there are limited spaces available, the ticket space will be allocated on a first come, first serve basis.

Your child will be required to bring their own lunch, drinks and snacks for the day.

If you wish for your child to attend, please return the permission slip alongside a total payment of £20.00 via parent pay only, no later than Friday 16th February 2018.

Should you require any further details, please contact Miss P. Mattu at pmattu@arena-birmingham.academy.

Yours sincerely

Miss P Mattu
Teacher of English
